Waiver of Liability

Complete K9 will make every reasonable effort to create a safe and secure training and / or boarding environment. Post training and boarding instructions will be provided to the owners.

There are times that dogs will act in a manner that is unpredictable and exhibit behaviours that are outside of the control of the trainers. Owners release, indemnifies and hold harmless Complete K9 and the trainers from any and all damages, liabilities, claims, loss, costs, expenses, causes of actions or suits related to services provided by Complete K9 including for any actions or behaviours of the dog that are outside of the trainer's control.

It is acknowledged that any product or service recommendation made by Complete K9 is not a guarantee of success, performance or satisfaction.

The successful training of a dog can be significantly impacted by numerous factors outside the control of the trainer, making some dogs to some extent untrainable. These factors can include, but are not limited too; the breeding of the dog, past treatment (possibly abuse), physical and psychological health of the dog, temperament, training schedule and the involvement of the owners in the training process.
